

California 2024 Election Report

BROWNSTEIN CLIENT ALERT, NOVEMBER 11, 2024

Over 5.47 million ballots remain to be counted, according to the first statewide unprocessed estimate released by the secretary of state the evening of Nov. 7, setting a record for the uncounted estimate two days after the election (previous initial estimates in the 2016, 2018, 2020 and 2022 elections generally ranged from between 4.2 and 4.9 million). At this rate, the final count is looking to be somewhere between 16 and 17 million.

While the highlighted races below are still too close for to call at this stage, the below recaps preliminary results and initial analysis for Senate races and competitive/open Assembly races. Should these results hold, the Senate would be increasingly moderate with several incoming Democratic members coming into the chamber having won races far too close for comfort against underfunded challengers in normally favorable and Democratic-leaning seats. In the Assembly, Republicans are currently ahead of their Democratic opponents in two majority-Latino districts that voted for Joe Biden in 2020 by double digits. Should those results hold, the ramifications to the Assembly's composition could be significant and while it is still the more progressive chamber, there may be hesitation to pursue an overly ambitious progressive agenda by leadership.

SD 23	Kipp Mueller (D) vs. Suzette Martinez Valladares (R)	In another close race to fill the seat of termed-out former Senate GOP Leader Scott Wilk, former Republican Assemblymember Suzette Martinez Valladares holds on to a 53% lead over Democratic candidate Kip Mueller. PROPOSITION 6 - ACA 8 (RESOLUTION CHAPTER 133, STATUTES OF 2024) WILSON. SLAVERY.

SUMMARY: The California Constitution prohibits slavery and involuntary servitude, except as punishment to a crime. This measure would prohibit slavery in any form, and would prohibit the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation from disciplining any incarcerated person for refusing a work assignment.

RESULTS: YES 44.4%/NO 55.6%—FAIL

PROPOSITION 32 - RAISES MINIMUM WAGE. INITIATIVE STATUTE.

SUMMARY: Entrepreneur and anti-poverty advocate Joe Sanberg funded the qualification drive for the Living Wage Act in 2022, intending it for the November 2022 ballot. However, proponents were slow turning in their signatures and missed the 2022 deadline, and so the Act will now appear on the November 2024 ballot.

This measure would raise the state minimum wage from the current $15 an hour to $18 an hour over several years. In 2016, Gov. Brown signed legislation to increase the minimum wage to $15 by 2023, with future minimum wage increases based on changes in the Consumer Price Index (CPI). The Living Wage Act would increase the minimum wage to $18, but it would increase it at different speeds depending on the number of workers an employer has. The minimum wage would reach $18 an hour for all employees on January 1, 2026, and would increase thereafter based on the CPI.

RESULTS: YES 48.7%/NO 51.3%—LEANING NO

PROPOSITION 33 - EXPANDS LOCAL GOVERNMENTS' AUTHORITY TO ENACT RENT CONTROL ON RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY. INITIATIVE STATUTE.

SUMMARY: The Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act of 1995 prevents local government from limiting the initial rate that landlords may charge new tenants and also prevents local governments from limiting rent increases on existing tenants. This initiative repeals the Costa-Hawkins Act and would prohibit the state from limiting the right of local governments from enacting rent control ordinances.

NOTES: AIDS Healthcare Foundation has spent over $7 million to qualify their rent control measure, the third attempt in recent years after previous efforts were rejected by voters by close to 20% in contests that saw the combined spending from both sides exceeding $100 million each time.

RESULTS: YES 39.2%/NO 60.%—FAIL

PROPOSITION 34 - RESTRICTS SPENDING BY HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS MEETING SPECIFIED CRITERIA. INITIATIVE STATUTE.

SUMMARY: This would permanently allow California's Medicaid program to pay pharmacies directly for prescription drugs. California started doing this in 2019 after Gov. Newsom signed an executive order allowing the payments. This measure would make it a law. The measure also would require some health care providers to spend almost all of the money they get from a federal prescription drug program directly on patient care instead of other things.

NOTE: This initiative is targeted at the proponents of Prop. 33, the Aids Healthcare Foundation (AHF). After AHF's 2024 rent control initiative (Prop 33) qualified, the CA Apartment Assn spent $14 million to qualify an initiative requiring health care providers meeting certain conditions to spend 98% of their revenues on direct patient care. The specified conditions apply to a single organization—AHF, and this measure would bring an end to use of AHF funds to bankroll future initiative campaigns.

RESULTS: YES 50.9%/NO 49.1%—LEANING YES

PROPOSITION 35 - PROVIDES PERMANENT FUNDING FOR MEDI-CAL HEALTH CARE SERVICES. INITIATIVE STATUTE.

SUMMARY: The Coalition to Protect Access to Care, a coalition led by the CA Medical Association and other stakeholders in the healthcare industry, secured a $36 billion tax deal in 2023 to shore up Medi-Cal's finances and qualified this initiative to permanently cement the deal and prevent future administrations from spending the revenue on other priorities. Proponents spent $7 million qualifying the initiative, which has been endorsed by both parties and currently has no organized opposition.

RESULTS: YES 67.3%/NO 32.7%—PASS

PROPOSITION 36 - ALLOWS FELONY CHARGES AND INCREASES SENTENCES FOR CERTAIN DRUG AND THEFT CRIMES. INITIATIVE STATUTE.

SUMMARY: If approved by voters, this measure would increase penalties for some drug and theft crimes, by rolling back Proposition 47 changes approved by voters a decade ago.

RESULTS: YES 69.4%/NO 30.6%—PASS
